CHUCK CATINO LEAGUE

Insurance Center swept Animal Care Center Monday morning, Feb. 29. Policy peddlers Norm Brooks, John Brassell and Dave Hyslop gobbled up everything the critter custodians hit while John Robles' dramatic home run highlighted the 12-4 and 15-3 taming of the animals.

Twist & Shout Diner out-slugged Quail Creek Country Club for an 18-14 win in the first afternoon game featuring a walk-off grand slam by Connie Schultz. The country clubbers had three 5-run innings in the second game to deep-fry the grill masters 22-8.

Last Wednesday showcased Quail Creek soundly defeating Insurance Center 22-7 in the first morning game. The policy peddlers prevailed 15-12 in the second contest behind perfect plate appearances from top agents Mark Hess, Dave Hyslop and "Old Faithful" Norm Brooks.

Animal Care Center rang the bell on Jeff LeFave's Investments 22-7 in the first Wednesday afternoon game with grand-slammers by Al Anderson and Jim Brandt. But the investors clinched the Catino League regular season title with a 13-1 victory in the second game, showcasing leading hitters John Hill, Jim

IVAN ALLISON LEAGUE

On Feb. 29, Hickey Auto tuned-up Premier Properties 17-12 in the first game with revved-up hitting from Craig Anderson, Gary Peelman and Roger Johnson. The property professionals took the second game 11-8 with solid teamwork and a thrilling over-the-back game-ending catch from Vic Albertini.

3 ½ Happy Barbers clinched the Allison League regular season title with an 8-4 victory over Two Girls Pizzeria in the first Monday afternoon game. The pizza-masters cooked up a 10-9 extra-inning victory in the second game with sizzling at-bats from Doug Arenson, John Cole and Randy Drenning.

Two Girls Pizzeria topped Hickey Automotive 9-4 in Wednesday afternoon's first game with Randy Drenning, Rick Hoen and Craig Jackson serving up perfect at-bats. The auto crew took the second game 8-4 with stellar offense and defense from Tom Trecker, Charlie Tarjan and Tammy Lacoy.

Brian Kelley and Tom Verndon had perfect at-bats for Premier Properties in Wednesday's afternoon games, but Happy Barber's pitcher Tommy "The Ice-man" Kennedy was dropping bullseyes for the hair-clippers in their 11-5 and 16-0 sweep of the property gang.

In BAJA's Allison League, 3½ Happy Barbers pitcher Tom "The Iceman" Kennedy tosses seven shut-out innings in a sweep.

BAJA Senior softball is played every Monday and Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Chuck Catino Softball Complex
